

Bai Jia Bei

These quilt blocks feature four of the five wu du or “five poisons” that ward off evil spirits: a spider, snake, scorpion and lizard. Color in the blocks to make it your own.

Made by Pan Kai Li in Wang Jian Cun (village), Shaanxi Province, China in 2013. IQSCM 2013.020.0002.

International Quilt Study Center & Museum
University of Nebraska–Lincoln www.quiltstudy.org

MY ANIMAL SYMBOL

While visiting Quilt House, I learned about animals in Chinese symbols and motifs. If I was going to have an animal represent me, it would be a:

And it would look like this:

